Dear Brother John -

We have finally decided that I can take the trip to California, and so if nothing happens I will leave here June 30 - and reach San. Fran. July 6. Via. the Burlington - or C.B. & Q. Excursion train. Quite a number with whom I am acquainted, will go from here on that train and so the trip will be greatly enjoyed -

Now as to the money - you suggest being my banker - and a safe banker you would be and you certainly ^{have} right to the most say in the matter - for many reasons, How or where deft investment - here all good interest - but I see want to hear from you and so please answer just as soon as this is received -

Wea will talk business soon when I see you, too -

I had two teeth extracted today - and am tired -

With love,
